

Previous Winners of the “Watershed of the Year” Award

West Virginia Watershed Network

1999: Lower Paint Creek Association

2000: Kelly's Creek Communities Association

2001: Shavers Fork Coalition

2002: Big Coal Watershed Association

No photo available.

2003: Friends of the Cheat

2004: Friends of Deckers Creek

2005: Sleepy Creek Watershed Association

2006: Morris Creek Watershed Association

2007: Plateau Action Network

2008: Buckhannon River Watershed Association

2009: Coal River Group

2010: Piney Creek Watershed Association

2011: Coal River Group and Friends of Deckers Creek

2012: Warm Springs Watershed Association

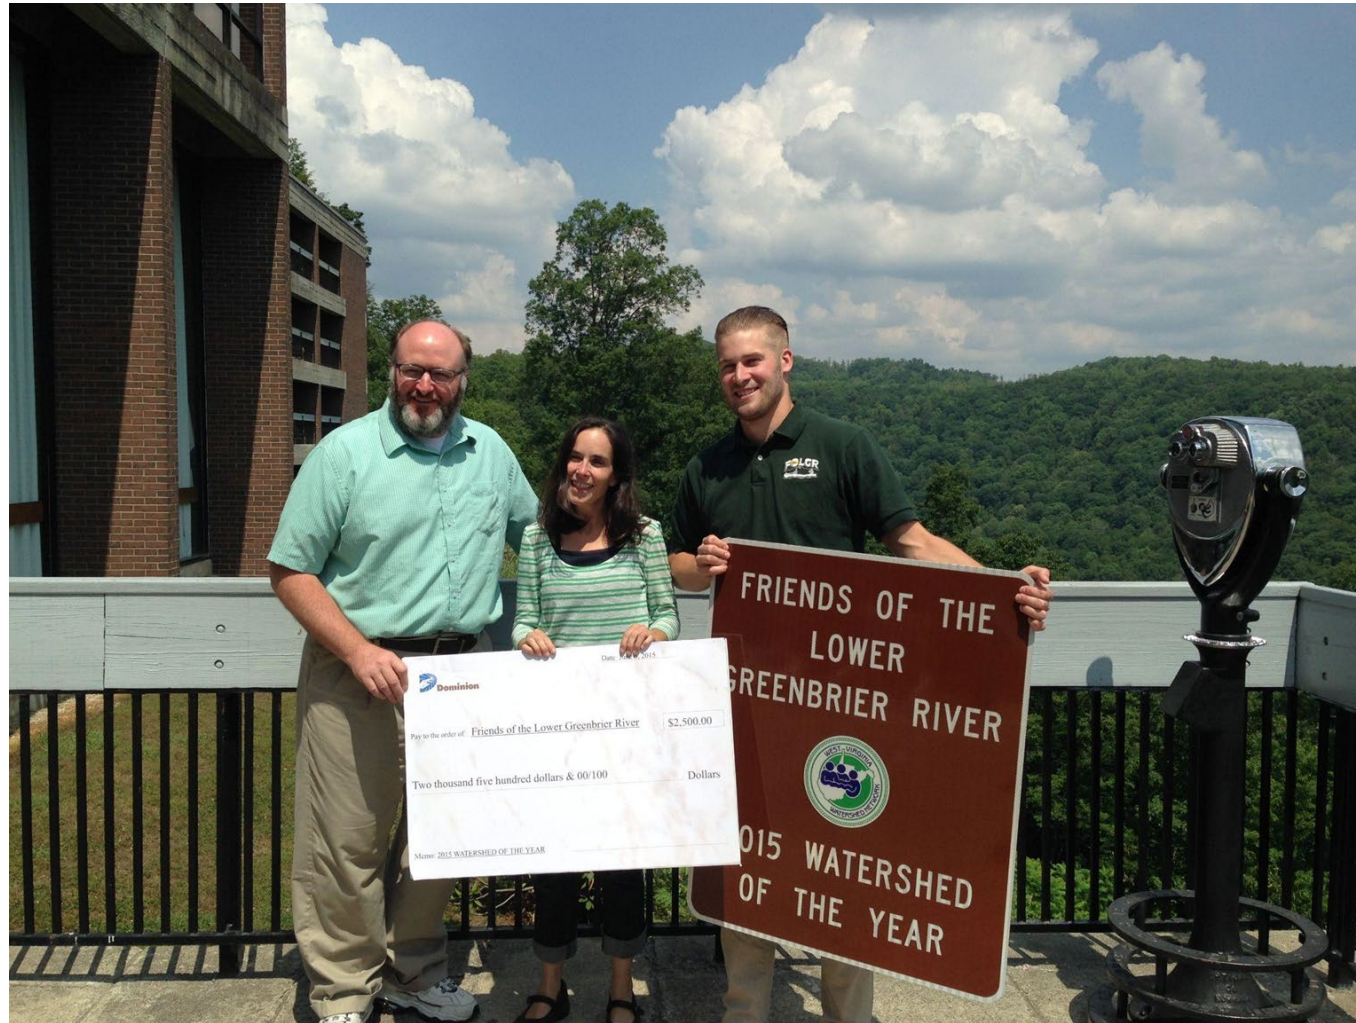

2013: Opequon Creek Project Team

2014: Morris Creek Watershed Association

2015: Friends of the Lower Greenbrier River

2016: Greenbrier River Watershed Association

2017: Friends of the Hughes Watershed Association

2018: Friends of the Cheat

2019:

There was no West Virginia Watershed Celebration Day event held in 2019.

2020:

Instead of awarding one “Watershed of the Year” award, this year we hosted a virtual symposium and chose a group in each of 4 categories:

- 1) Education: Fourpole Creek Watershed Association
- 2) Vigilance: Mountain Lakes Preservation Alliance
- 3) Restoration: Piney Creek Watershed Association
- 4) Celebration: Forks of Coal State Natural Area Foundation

View presentation at: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8XPvggsrpog>

20th Annual Watershed Celebration Day, 2018

Help us in honoring and celebrating
these past winners.

Keep up the great work!

